

For your calipers to work correctly, it is important to be able to maintain a good balance between movement and resistance to movement during use. We have found that assembling the attachment hardware as shown provides the best balance between these two opposing conditions. Remember that in order to “seat” the hardware, it may be necessary to open, close, and tighten, the locking knobs several times before the correct of tension is reached.